A WORD FROM THE LORD

My beloved children,
I called you into this battle.
It is My battle.
It is My battle to change you,
To transform you,
To raise new leaders,
To raise new leaders.
It is My battle of transformation.
It is My battle of impartation.
It is My battle of the transformation of all the people of Christian Missionary Fellowship International.
Yes, I have come to carry you into a new season.
And so, I make all things new!
Yes, I make all things new!
It is My battle to raise leaders!
Yes, new leaders!
New for those who will emerge with Me in this season;
And new because I will transform the present leaders who will come with Me and be made new in all domains.
It is also My battle for preparation for all the mighty things I have for you in the coming season.
I have mobilised you and many of you have come into this fast and prayer more than ever before.
I am with you in this fast.
I am with you in the praying;
And I will accomplish My purpose;
All My purposes for you, through you and with you.
I will have all the leaders I need.
I will have the kind of leaders I need.
Yes, I will have My new leaders.
Some are already coming along with Me!
Some still do not see.
Some still do not believe.
Some are distracted.
But I will have all the leaders I need.
You must fast and pray with faith!
You must fast and pray with great joy and anticipation of what I will do.
You must come to Me in true repentance;
Yes, in true repentance as I allow My light to shine into you.
Is this not the fast I have chosen to break the cords of smallness, of jealousies, comparisons, human efforts, inner weariness, satisfactions with too little and all that plagues you and has stopped you from entering My limitlessness and fullness, and to bring you into the supernatural?

Yes, into My supernatural life by releasing My Spirit mightily upon you in power such that you walk, work and live in My supernatural life?

So, you enter into brackets which are out of the ordinary;

Brackets of the supernatural that bring you unusual growth in the shortest possible time.

My children, My gifts are ready,

Ready to be poured out on you!

But I have already begun to impart new abilities into a little few who have come to Me in faith and with all their hearts.

Come to Me.

Come with Me.

Concentrate on Me.

Labour with Me.

Cry to Me,

And I will surely answer you.

This is My doing!

This is My doing!

This is My doing!

This is My time!

This is My season for you as a community!

Yes, this is My time.

And in My time, I do it swiftly.

I am the Lord.
